The Archies

The Archies is an annual celebration for businesses across the material handling and intralogistics sectors. Each year, we welcome hundreds of industry leaders who gather to recognise outstanding projects, the very best organisations, along with cutting-edge solutions and products. The quality of entrants, our judging process and laser focus helps us to deliver a high calibre audience of senior professionals on the night.

With a rich history of over 30 years, The Archies are firmly established as the must-attend celebration of excellence in our industry. Backed by UKMHA, the leading association for the UK's material handling sector, the Archies returns for 2025; taking place on Wednesday 10th September, timed to coincide with IMHX week.

As the headline sponsor for the Archies, IMHX is the UK's largest logistics event, drawing in tens of thousands of visitors and connecting suppliers with in-market buyers. Hosting The Archies during IMHX creates a vibrant evening centrepiece, offering a unique opportunity to honour the best in the industry.

Sponsorship Opportunities

Category + Sponsor

By becoming a Category + sponsor, you are aligning your company with industry excellence.

As a sponsor, you are guaranteed maximum exposure with the highest priority branding among sponsor levels. Category + sponsors receive enhanced versions of the tier sponsorship packages. In addition, it activates exclusive opportunities as a premium partner of the event.

Category Sponsor

Whether you want to enhance your image in your area of expertise or boost your profile in a new industry sector, this sponsorship package allows you to select the category that best aligns with your company, while also presenting an award on the night – a profile-raising opportunity for your chosen representative.

In addition to the category sponsorship packages, we also have tailored options available to suit all budgets and objectives.

To discuss a branding package, please contact robert.fisher@ukmha.org.uk
